Idque consul malorum has ut, aperiri elaboraret in per, est no aequae assentior omittantur.

My Modern Workflow Tools

HTML5

I am an avid user of the incredibly useful semantic elements in HTML5 as well as a plethora of other native APIs, form elements, and more.

CSS3

I have written heaps of CSS3 and continue to constantly push my knowledge in the area.

JavaScript

I love core JavaScript so much that I try to teach it to everyone I meet. I'm always ready to discuss prototypes, closures, or the quirkyness of the array object.

Sass + Compass

Sass & Compass are my best friends! I can't imagine a front-end developer not using some sort of pre-processor. If you don't, start using one ASAP.

NodeJS

Here is the deal, I enjoy what I do tremendously and talk at length about all the details involved with keep it all together.

Git

Here is the deal, I enjoy what I do tremendously and talk at length about all the details involved with keep it all together.

Angular
